The exclusivity of the design!

With winning design, exclusive, with even the smallest detail looked after, it has been planned with MASSIMOMUSSAPI so as to make Luxor the vertical refrigerated display unit that everyone was waiting for. Elegant, innovative, adaptable to any type of ambience, it is unique and on the cutting edge in its category.

The secret of temptation.

Designed to connect the elegance of its form with the highest evaluation of content, Luxor transforms exposition into a real exhibition of taste that attracts and draws you in at first sight.

- The display compartment bay, completely in tempered glass, with its innovative shelf support system, increases visibility from any sight angle
 - The studied dimensions, connected to the lightness of the structure with integrated "invisible" handles, multiply the display space and optimise visibility from the first to the last level
 - The led lighting creates a luminous and inviting ambience
 - The lower structure without frontal holes, masterfully hides the wheels and renders the display unit sleek and light.

The luxury of performance and reliability.

Conceived to guarantee the best in the conservation of products on display, Luxor synthesises the perfect balance between design and refrigeration technology: the quality of the Italian product achieves excellence with the experience and the care that has always characterised made in Sagi.

- The refrigeration systems of the various models, is planned to offer maximum performance for every kind of product displayed
- The positioning of the shelves, the door - stop system and the electronic panel control board with the signaling of the HACCP alarms are expressions of quality and function, cared for in every minute detail for a display unit of the latest generation.

To increase sales.

Luxor has the magic ability to multiply the value of displayed goods, with the aim of increasing sales. Customers are carried away with temptations offered by elegant, bright displays that stimulate their desire to indulge in pleasurable, special, tasty treats. With Luxor, dreams becomes reality!
